STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS

I

Act of 11 of 1959.—The Report of the Committee of Directors of the All India Rural Credit Survey, appointed by the Reserve Bank of India, was published in December, 1954. At the first conference of State Ministers in charge of Co-operation held at New Delhi in April, 1955, it was agreed that schemes of Co-operative development under the Second Five-Year Plan should be drawn up to give effect to the recommendations contained in the Rural Credit Survey Report. The Report recommended, among other things, increased State partnership in Co-operative Societies and State participation in their management. In order to implement the recommendations of the Rural Credit Survey Report and to facilitate the implementation of the schemes of co-operative development under the Second Five-Year Plan and also to simplify, rationalise and modernise the existing laws relating to Co-operative Societies, the Committee on Co-operative Law was appointed by the Government of India. The Committee observed that the implementation of the recommendations of the Rural Credit Survey Report and of the schemes of co-operative development under the Second Five-Year Plan requires revision of the existing Co-operative Societies Act and the Rules made thereunder in all States. Further, the Re-organisation of States has brought together, areas which are being governed by different Acts and Rules. Under these circumstances the Committee felt, the present juncture was very opportune for revising the Co-operative Societies Act, in force in the different States with a view to bringing about as large a degree of uniformity in the legislation governing Co-operative Societies as possible throughout the country. Taking these factors into consideration, the Committee prepared a Model Co-operative Societies Bill and Model Rules which they recommended to State Governments for enactment and adoption. At present five different Co-operative Societies Acts are in operation in the different parts of the Mysore State. This is a source of considerable administrative inconvenience. It is necessary to have a uniform Co-operative Societies Law as applicable to the whole of the State.

Government have, therefore, decided to introduce the present Bill. The Bill has been drafted after taking into consideration the Model Co-operative Societies Bill recommended by the Committee on Co-operative Law appointed by the Government of India. The principle of State partnership in Co-operative Societies and State participation in their management has been accepted and incorporated in the relevant provisions of this Bill.

II

Amending Act 40 of 1964.—The Mysore Co-operative Societies Act, 1959, which was brought into force from First July 1960 has revealed in the course of working the need for some amendments for speedy implementation. It has also become necessary to amend the chapter relating to the Mysore Central Land Mortgage Bank Ltd., so that the Bank could take up expeditiously development activities for which funds could be made available from the provision made under Taccavi loans or from the funds borrowed from the Agricultural Re-finance Corporation of India or from the debentures raised by the Bank itself. Hence the amending Bill.

III

Amending Act 27 of 1966.— Note.—By this Act the Karnataka Agricultural Produce Marketing (Regulation) Act, 1966 (Karnataka Act 27 of 1966) was enacted. Certain consequential amendments are made therein to this Act .

IV

Amending Act 16 of 1967.— Consequent on the amendment of the Central Sales Tax Act by the Parliament providing for the enhancement of the rates of tax applicable to the declared good under the local sales tax laws, it has become necessary to amend the IX Schedule which specifies the declared goods and the rates of tax applicable to them. The rates of tax applicable to the declared goods specified therein are now being enhanced accordingly. Co-operative Societies

The Government was considering the question of granting certain concessions to new industries with a view to encourage development of industries in the State. The Government recently took a decision that in respect of new industries exemption from the payment of Sales Tax should be provided for an initial period of two years. The manner in which that exemption should be provided was examined and it was thought that it can be best done by means of Notifications issued from time to time whenever occasion arises. Since the Act did not contain a provision empowering the State Government to issue such notifications it is now intended to insert a provision empowering the Government to notify exemptions and reduction of tax rates. Such a provision exists in the Sales Tax Laws of the neighbouring States also.

This occasion is also utilised to make certain minor amendments relating to procedural matters and also to provide for concessional rate of tax for vermicelli and to reduce the rates of tax on sugarcane and to exempt Amber Charkas, Druggets, Durries and Carpets. The benefit of exemption granted to bona fide producers under item 28 of the V Schedule is proposed to be limited to persons who produce goods exclusively coming under village industry.

Note: By this Act some consequential amendments are made to Act 11 of 1959 .

V

Amending Act 1 of 1972.—According to clause (c) of section 101 of the Mysore Co-operative Societies Act, 1959, an order, decision and award made under the Act can be executed by the Registrar or any other person subordinate to him by attachment and sale of any property of the person or co-operative society against whom the order, decision or award has been obtained or passed. In order to implement this provision necessary rules have been made and rule 41 of the Mysore Co-operative Societies Rules, 1960, empowers the Sale Officer to investigate the claims to property attached in execution. In pursuance of this provision, Sale Officers have been investigating such claims.

In Jyotiba Yellappa vs. Hubli Co-operative Cotton Sale Society, Ltd., [1970 (2) Mys. L.J. 344], the High Court of Mysore held that the procedure under Rule 41 of the Co-operative Societies Rules is limited in its operation to persons who can properly be made parties to the original dispute under section 70 of the Act and that hence a claim by non-members against the attachment and sale in execution of an award cannot be adjudicated under rule 41.

In view of this decision, execution of orders, decisions and awards in which claims to the property attached had been made by non-members would become

Invalid and ineffective. Further, execution of orders, decisions and awards could not be proceeded with except in cases where members of the society were interested in the properties liable to attachment and sale. Consequently, the Co-operative Societies could not pursue the expeditious procedure for recovery under the Co-operative Societies Rules.

Hence it became necessary to empower the Registrar and his subordinate to exercise the powers of investigating claims to property attached in the execution of the orders, decisions and awards.

As the Houses of Legislature were not in Session and the matter was urgent, an Ordinance was promulgated amending section 101 of the Act and validating the action already taken. Thereafter before the Ordinance could be replaced by the Act of State Legislature, the State Legislature was suspended by the proclamation of the President dated 27th March 1971 under article 356 of the Constitution. The Bill is intended to replace the Ordinance and is for enactment under the provisions of the Mysore State Legislature (Delegation of Powers) Act, 1971.

The Consultative Committee on State Legislature relating to Mysore at its second meeting on the 7th December 1971, has considered the Mysore Co-operative Societies (Amendment) Bill, 1972, and has accorded its approval of the same.

(Obtained from Presidents Act 1 of 1972.)

VI

Amending Act 14 of 1973.—The post of Director of Sugar has been created to fulfil the need for a single agency to deal with all matters relating to sugar industry in the State in a comprehensive and co-ordinated manner. Since there are a number of sugar factories already in the co-operative sector and more factories are likely to come up in future it was necessary to designate the Director of Sugar as Additional Registrar of Co-operative Societies in respect of all the Sugar Factories in the co-operative sector. At present the Registrar of Co-operative Societies is dealing with all matters relating to Co-operative Sugar Factories and it is felt that the Director of Sugar should assist the Registrar in the discharge of his functions in respect of Co-operative Sugar Factories. The Additional Chief Marketing Officer has been designated as Ex-Officio Additional Registrar of Co-operative Societies.

2. Section 2-A of the Mysore Co-operative Societies Act, 1959 provides for the appointment of an Additional Registrar of Co-operative Societies. In order to enable the Additional Chief Marketing Officer and the Director of Sugar to be designated as Additional Registrar of Co-operative Societies and also in order to provide for future contingencies it is considered necessary to amend the provision to enable Government to appoint as many Additional Registrars of Co-operative Societies as it thinks fit for the purpose of assisting the Registrar.

VII

Amending Act 2 of 1975.— Note.- By this Act the Karnataka Agricultural Credit Operations and Miscellaneous Provision Act, 1975 (Karnataka Act 2 of 1975) was enacted. Certain consequential amendments are made therein to Act 11 of 1959.

VIII

Amending Act 39 of 1975.—In order to facilitate the extension of Deposit Insurance Schemes under the Deposit Insurance Corporation Act, 1961 (Central Act 47 of 1961) to co-operative banks registered under the Mysore Co-operative Societies Act 1959 the Government of India, Ministry of Food, Agriculture, Community Development and Co-operation and also the Reserve Bank of India have suggested to the State Government to make necessary amendments in the State Act so as to enable the State Government and the Reserve Bank of India to exercise powers of supersession, re-constitution and liquidation of Co-operative Banks. The Committee appointed by the Government with the then Deputy Minister for Co-operation as the Chairman with non-official Presidents of some of the major Co-operative Institutions and officers of the Government to consider the amendments to be made in the State Act in the light of the policies and programmes of the Government, recommended among others, making all the necessary provisions in the Co-operative Societies Act as suggested by the Government of India and the Reserve Bank. A Bill was introduced for this purpose in the Legislative Assembly in March 1970. The Bill was not taken up for consideration by the Assembly, and with the dissolution of the Legislative Assembly, the Bill has lapsed. It was considered necessary by Government to amend the Act to provide for certain urgent and important items noted below:

- (1) Extension of deposit insurance schemes to the Co-operative Banks;
- (2) Amalgamation of Co-operative Banks;
- (3) Creation of second charge on the land of the member of the Society enabling him to draw finance for agricultural operations.
- (4) Nomination of members of Committee by State Government in certain cases;
- (5) Winding up of Co-operative Banks.

Accordingly, an amendment Bill was prepared and forwarded to the Government of India with a request to get it enacted as President's Act. The Government of India suggested certain changes in the Bill. As elections to the State Legislature were to be held the Bill was not enacted as a President's Act.

It is now considered necessary to amend the Mysore State Co-operative Societies Act 1959, so as to facilitate the extension of Deposit Insurance Scheme to Co-operative Banks, to allow for the admission of Commercial Banks as nominal members of the Co-operative Societies, to afford relief to the borrowers from Co-operative Society to get proportionate release of charge on lands where partial discharges of loans are made and where Area Development Works are taken up in compact areas to protect the interest of Government or Land Development Bank financing the scheme, to make suitable provision in the Act for nomination of two-thirds of the total number of Directors on the Board of Directors of any Co-operative Society in which Government hold shares of the value not less than 50 percent of the share capital of Co-operative Society, to make provisions of framing T.A. Rules of the members of the Co-operative Societies, to provide for the Central Banks to initiate the Arbitration Proceedings on some of the members of the Primary Co-operative Societies, to make provision for disqualification of defaulters from membership of Committee of Management, to provide for the commencement of term office of the members, resignation of Members of the Committee and for disqualifying a member to be appointed or continued as President, vice-president, etc., of a co-operative society for more than six consecutive years, to provide for the constitution of a bench comprising of two members, by the Chairman, Mysore Co-operative Appellate Tribunal and to make provision enabling Government to constitute an authority/authorities for the recruitment, training, etc., of employees of the Co-operative Societies.

During the President's rule, section 101 of the Mysore Co-operative Societies Act, 1959 was amended by President Act No. 1 of 1972. This was to overcome the difficulty arising out of the decision of the High Court in regard to execution of decree against non-members. As the operation of the President's Act is upto March 1973, and it is necessary to continue the provisions made therein, these provisions have to be re-enacted.

Hence the Bill.

(Published in Karnataka Gazette (Extraordinary) Part IV-2A dated 26th February 1973 as No. 179 at page 22–24.)

IX

Amending Act 19 of 1976.—The Karnataka Co-operative Societies Act was amended on 10th March 1976 providing for reorganization of Co-operative Societies with a view to making the Societies more viable and to serve the interest of weaker sections in particular and to slacken the hold of vested interests over the Societies. But even after the amendment of the Act, it was seen that there were some difficulties in the timely and effective implementation of the provision of the Act. It is also considered necessary to provide for legal steps towards ensuring proper management of the Co-operative Institutions as also for effective action on the erring Co-operative Societies. Accordingly the provisions pertaining to the following matters have been amended suitably by promulgating Ordinance Nos. 15 and 19 of 1976 on 19th July 1976 and 7th August 1976 respectively:

- (1) Reorganization of Co-operative Societies.
- (2) Appointment of Special Officers to Co-operative Societies.
- (3) Power to give direction to Co-operative Societies.
- (4) Appeal provisions under the Act as consequential measure.
- (5) Removal and disqualification of members on the Committee of Management.
- (6) Extending the indemnity provision to the new Management Committee and the Administrators and Special Officers appointed under the Act.

The reorganization of Co-operative Societies was of an urgent nature. The Reserve Bank of India and the Government of India were pressing all State Governments to immediately complete the reorganization of Co-operative Societies so as to enable effective implementation of the 20 Point Economic Programme.

In certain cases immediate action for taking over the management of Co-operative Societies is considered essential. Hence a new Section 30(A) has been included. It is also considered to have legal authority to enable Government to give directions in public interest, to Co-operative Societies. Provision for removal of members of the Committees existed in the rules. It was necessary to make provision under the Act.

The provision regarding the indemnifying the officers who acted in good faith was sought to be extended to the new Committees of Management as also administrators and the Special Officers appointed under the Act is considered necessary.

All the amendments were of urgent nature in the interest of development of Co-operative Movement on right lines and in the absence the Legislative Assembly in Session recourse to promulgation of Ordinance had to be resorted to.

These amendments do not involve additional cost to Government.

This Bill seeks to replace the said Ordinances.

It is also considered necessary to provide for legal steps towards ensuring proper management of the Co-operative Institutions as also for effective action on the erring Co-operative Societies. Accordingly the provisions pertaining to the following matters have been amended suitably by promulgation Ordinance Nos. 15 and 19 of 1976 on 19th July and 7th August respectively.

- (1) Reorganization of Co-operative Societies.
- (2) Appointment of Special Officers to Co-operative Societies.
- (3) Power to give direction to Co-operative Societies.
- (4) Appeal provisions under the Act as consequential measure.
- (5) Removal and disqualification of members on the Committee of Management.
- (6) Extending the indemnity provision to the new Management Committee and the Administrators and Special Officers appointed under the Act.

The reorganization of Co-operative Societies was of an urgent nature. The Reserve Bank of India and the Government of India were pressing all State Governments to immediately complete the reorganization of Co-operative Societies so as to enable effective implementation of the 20 Point Economic Programme.

In certain cases immediate action for taking over the management of Co-operative Societies is considered essential. Hence a new Section 30(A) has been included. It is considered to have legal authority to enable Government to give directions in public interest, to Co-operative Societies. Provision for removal of members of the Committees existed in the rules. It was necessary to make provision under the Act.

The provision regarding the indemnifying the officers who acted in good faith was sought to be extended to the new Committees of Management as also administrators and the Special Officers appointed under the Act is considered necessary.

All the amendments were of urgent nature in the interest of development of Co-operative Movement on right lines and in the absence the Legislative Assembly in Session recourse to promulgation of Ordinance had to be restored to.

These amendments do not involve additional cost to Government.

This Bill seeks to replace the said ordinances.

(ii) To bar persons carrying on the same kind of business as that of a Co-operative Society from being members;

XII

Amending Act 14 of 1978.—With a view to make the Co-operative Societies effective instruments of assisting the weaker sections and also for handling the financing of agricultural production on an increasing scale, it was considered necessary to reorganize the Co-operative Societies into stronger units. The need for reorganization of these Societies into viable units has gained urgency in view of the necessity for filling up the credit gap as a result of the Debt Relief measure which apart from redeeming the debts of weaker sections has resulted in more or less drying up the traditional sources of available finance.

Writ petitions were filed before the High Court of Karnataka by the Primary Agricultural Credit Co-operative Societies/individuals challenging the validity of the provisions of section 14A of the Karnataka Co-operative Societies Act, 1959, as also the orders issued by the Deputy Registrars of Co-operative Societies.

The Hon'ble High Court of Karnataka while disposing of the writ petitions has upheld the constitutional validity of section 14A of the Karnataka Co-operative Societies Act, 1959 but the orders issued by the authorities under section 14A of the Act have been struck down on the ground of non-application of the principle of udi alterem partem.

As the amalgamation and reorganization of societies already taken place and the said societies have functioned for quite some time it was not practicable to revert back to the original position. Hence it was considered necessary to validate the action taken earlier by specifically excluding the application of principle of natural justice before taking action under section 14A of the Act by suitably amending the Act with retrospective effect.

Since the Legislature Council was not in session an Ordinance was promulgated. This Bill seeks to replace the said Ordinance.

XIV

Amending Act 3 of 1980.—Under the existing provisions of the Karnataka Co-operative Societies Act, 1959, the Registrar of Co-operative Societies is empowered to get the accounts of the Co-operative Societies audited by a person authorized by him.

In order to ensure that the accounts of the Co-operative Societies are audited by independent persons, the State Government has created a separate audit wing with the Chief Auditor as the head thereof. This wing has been functioning effectively since more than two years.

In order to give the Chief Auditor and officers sub-ordinate to him statutory recognition it was considered necessary to amend the Co-operative Societies Act 1959 suitably. As the matter was very urgent, the Karnataka Co-operative Societies (Amendment) Ordinance 1979 (Karnataka Ordinance No. 20 of 1979) was issued.

Hence this Bill to replace the said Ordinance.

(Published in Karnataka Gazette (Extraordinary) Part IV-2A dated 27th February 1980 as No. 139 at page 6.)

XV

Amending Act 4 of 1980.—Section 14A of Karnataka Co-operative Societies Act was first introduced by an amendment to Karnataka Co-operative Societies Act through Karnataka Co-operative Societies Amendment Act 1975. Sub-section (1) of Section 14-A contained a proviso providing for the previous sanction in writing of the Reserve Bank of India in the case of amalgamation, division, Re-organization of Co-operative Banks. This proviso was retained when further amendment were carried out by Karnataka Act 19 of 1976. When the Karnataka Act 70 of 1976 was published carrying out further amendments to the Co-operative Societies Act it is found that this proviso to sub-section (1) of Section 14-A is not found in the Karnataka Act 70 of 1976. In this amendment the sub-section (1) of Section 14-A was substituted by new provision and the proviso was left out.

Hence an amendment to Section 14-A is necessary for incorporating then proviso which was left out while further amendments were made in Karnataka Act 70 of 1976.

Hence this Bill.

(Published in Karnataka Gazette (Extraordinary) Part IV-2A dated 24th February 1984 as No. 139 at page 16.)

XVII

Amending Act 34 of 1985.—It is considered necessary to amend the Karnataka Co-operative Societies Act, 1959 for speedy recovery of large amounts due from the members of various Co-operative Institutions in the State of Karnataka. The Amendment proposed enables the State Government to purchase the defaulters' properties by Government bidding in the public auction and to dispose of such properties in such manner as Government deems fit.

2. As the matter was very urgent, and the Legislative Assembly was not in session, the Karnataka Co-operative Societies (Amendment) Ordinance, 1985 (Karnataka Ordinance No. 15 of 1985) was issued. This Bill seeks to replace the said ordinance.

XVIII

Amending Act 34 of 1991.—It is considered necessary to omit section 101-C, since other provisions relating to recovery of Co-operative dues are found to be adequate and the purchase of immovable property by the State Government in the auctions has caused un-necessary anxiety and hardship to the farmers.

Hence the Bill.

(Published in Karnataka Gazette (Extraordinary) Part IV-2A dated 30th September 1991 as No. 622 at page 254.)

The Government has invested a large amount of money in various Co-operative Societies in the form of share capital, loan and subsidy. Further, the Government has also given guarantee to various Co-operative institutions for repayment of loan and interest due by them. Amending Act 28 of 2012.- The Government of India (GOI) had appointed a task force on 05.08.2004 under the Chairmanship of Prof. A.Vaidyanathan to suggest measures for revival of short-term cooperative credit structure in the country. The said task force travelled extensively throughout the country and interacted with cooperative societies and cooperators and made a critical study of the short-term cooperative credit structure in the Country and submitted its report to GOI on 04.02.2005. Thereafter the GOI held discussions with the representatives of the State Governments and formulated a revival package for reorganization of short-term credit cooperative structure on the basis of the recommendations of Prof.A.Vaidyanathan and taking into account the views of the State Governments and communicated the revival package to the States in January 2006.

The Government of Karnataka has accepted the revival package and signed tripartite Memorandum of Understanding(MoU) with GOI & NABARD on 25.03.2008. The said MoU envisages certain amendments to be brought to the Karnataka Cooperative Societies Act 1959 giving more powers to the cooperative societies and at the same time vesting certain powers with RBI/NABARD. It is a pre-condition under the MoU that the Karnataka Cooperative Societies Act 1959 be amended accordingly before release of the financial assistance by GOI through NABARD under the package.

It is considered necessary to amend the Karnataka Co-operative Societies Act 1959 with the insertion of Section 14A which empowers the Registrar to order for compulsory amalgamation or division or re-organisation of co-operative societies. This has become a necessity in the light of reorganization of districts/proposed reorganization of taluks in the State and to implements the revival package of the Government of India for short-term cooperative credit structure.
